If you are a mother, healer, artist, medicine woman or entrepreneur ready to live sovereign and free,
this program is for you.

Two years ago...

I was teaching, guiding women's retreats and offering one-on-one healing sessions at my Healing Space, Shanti Naam Yoga in Northern California.

I was humbled witnessing the journeys of hundreds of people come and go, almost reaching their health goals and then falling back into the same old patterns. I could feel their frustration and mine as well, because for some reason the lasting results weren't reliably sustainable.

I asked Spirit one day,
"Can you please guide me how to create a safe space for the deepest most lasting transformation?"

I sat in a moment of silence and immediately heard the answer: "It takes 9-Months to create life, it will take 9-Months Re-Birthing to create lasting transformation."

So, here we are two years later, and Sovereign Life Leadership is born.

The primary portion of this program is delivered through a 7-Step Journey I call "Sacred Self R.E.S.P.E.C.T." This Journey supports you in claiming your Sovereignty through Respecting yourself so deeply that you finally create Healthy Loving Relationships and become unstoppable in your Soul Led Mission.

What's possible for you?

Carmen

Working with Dev over the past six months has helped me regain a path of balance and a renewed sense of self determination and strength. With the guidance of her clear and empathetic instruction, I am learning to reunite with my true self and reveal what has been hidden through fear, apprehension and anxiety...I feel I've transformed in beautiful and powerful ways throughout my journey with her. I am feel clear, confident and in alignment.

Jen

I feel the most authentic and not afraid to be me... Dev has an innate way of getting to the root of what may be getting in your way. She is strong yet gentle in her approach. Doing this daily work is definitely worth all the benefits. One extra plus is I've been able to keep off 20 lbs that was always hard for me to lose. When your body and mind work together synergistically it's amazing where life takes you. Expect miracles when working with Dev Avatar!

Donna

Working with Dev has been life-changing. I am experiencing such deep healing that I didn't even know I needed. I have had more breakthroughs in the first two months of coaching than I had in years. With Dev's guidance and the self-inquiry tools I learned from her, I have become much more aware of how my patterns have created blockages in various areas in my life and now that these blocks are dissolving, I can express and manifest from my true self. My relationships have never been healthier and my work is so much more fulfilling. Dev's coaching and the EYTN community have both been great support in this incredibly transformative journey. I know that what I am learning in these months will continue to benefit me for the rest of my life.

Karina

Dev is committed to her own healing, and the deep healing of others. She is a devoted student who embodies what she teaches. To be in a coaching program or kundalini yoga class with Dev is to walk this journey side by side with her as your guide. I love her transparency about her own unique process and her acceptance about the difficult aspects in life. Dev provides a secure environment where you feel safe to let down your walls, be seen, heard and supported. She honors your process and makes you feel like you are right where you need to be. Anyone who goes on this journey with Dev will come out accepting where they are, having more clarity and feeling more connected to self and God. Thank

You, Dev!

Leslie

Working with Dev has been incredibly supportive and transformational for me over the last few months. I am in the process of separating from my husband of ten years and am also looking closely at the relationships I have with people in my family and community that have not supported my authentic self-expression. With Dev's help, I am tuning into my feelings and actually feeling them — and having them witnessed and supported. I am learning what healthy communication and relationship look and feel like, and I am practicing using healthy communication and boundaries in order to create healthy relationships within my family, especially with my two young children. Being supported in feeling my true feelings, including the ones I'm less comfortable with such as anger and resentment, and also naming and acting on what I really want for myself, is a really big shift for me that I didn't even realize was missing so much. As a Black woman and daughter of immigrants, there is so much in me, and in my body especially, that has been silenced by family and society. Three months into my six month program of weekly coaching calls and embodied healing work with Dev, I am making huge shifts in my life, getting free from some unhealthy relationships that I've known weren't serving me but that I couldn't find a way to step away from, and just feeling much better. It is really hard work though and would be so hard to do on my own — I am so thankful to be guided, supported and connected in community as I do this work and go through this time of great change and awakening in my life.

Claudia

Dev has guided my spiritual growth for some years now. Her teaching is one of a kind.
